Blue Grass Notes

(Too late for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bean were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Fuller Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dane announce the birth of a daughter Saturday, October 16th.

Russell Ballard and the children of Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun are attending the North Fairview district school.

Miss Myrl Adams spent Saturday at the home of her brother, C. W. Adams.

C. O. Moyer will henceforth deliver Uncle Sam's mail in a car, having purchased one in Laverne the past week.

Rev. Chas. Hayes has purchased a binder from Mrs. S. Bealmer.

Miss Esta Stevens was absent from school the past week on account of sickness.

Interest is now centered on the proposed State road, and the advantages to be derived thereby. Among those mentioned are the facilities for the quicker transportation of the rural mail and hence more satisfactory service, also the improved roadways, which will lessen the laborious hauling of the farm products to the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eades spent Sunday at Mr. Speer's home near Spearmore. Mr. Speer was taken ill some two weeks ago and is not yet considered out of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wells and Miss Lola Tetter spent Sunday, October 24th at the home of George Dane, near Spearmore.

Miss Lola O'Hare attended services at Blue Grass Sunday.

Rev. H. F. Neff held regular services at Blue Grass October 24th, following the Sunday School session. The next service will be November 27th at 8:30.

The Griswell ranch was the scene of an extraordinary occurrence the past week. While working near and with the stage cutter, it blew up, scattering debris in all directions. Charles Griswell had but a few moments before been working over it. It blew a large piece of steel striking the wheel of the engine near by and taking out a piece as it went. All agree that they had a very narrow escape.

South Fairview Sunday School was represented again Sunday by two of her loyal workers of the young people's class. Blue Grass extends a welcome to all her neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Moyer spent Sunday with relatives in Ivanhoe.

North Fork.

Messrs. Kepple and Cox each took wheat to Glazier Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ertz and children accompanied the latter's mother, Mrs. Haynes home to Watonga for a short visit, hoping that the change would benefit Mrs. Ertz's health, as she has been in ill health for several months.

Mrs. Lon Woods departed last week for Colorado Springs. She has been a sufferer from consumption the past year and it is hoped the change will help her.

Mrs. Dickinson, of Kiowa, Texas, and sister, Mrs. Williams, called at P. A. Wood's Tuesday.

Mrs. Shepard's brother and sister from the east, are visiting her for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fisher will care for the Ertz home while they are away on their visit.

Chan Fisher and wife were trading in Ivanhoe Friday.

Mrs. Ed Gaunt and Mrs. E. Henson were callers at Mrs. Williams Wednesday evening.

Ed Kepple and Henry Cox brought the material for Arthur Williams new well from Glazier Friday.

COUNTRY LAD.

Clear Lake.

(Crowded out last week.)

The here October days are here with the beautiful touch of nature's hand, which ripens the golden grain and puts the yellow tinge upon the leaves. Thus we are reminded that ere long the frost will be on the pumpkin whether the corn is in the shock or not, so look out for the reaper.

J. H. Lane and bride are now domiciled at the old homestead.

Mrs. Clyde Coleman and Miss Cora Dunn were calling on Miss Esta Bennett Wednesday.

Mrs. H. B. Wright was visiting at Mr. Eyer's Monday.

Howard Woods left last Wednesday for his home at Battle Creek, Mich.

Mrs. Lute Drum was shopping in Beaver Saturday.

Mrs. H. C. Gray was calling on Mrs. Dunn Friday.

Miss Irma Sprague spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Pearl Hendricks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Klepper and son, John, spent Sunday with Chas. Eyer and family.

Clark Sprague has been numbered among the sick the past week.

Mr. George Buckmaster and Miss America Clem were married at five o'clock Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clem. We wish this young couple a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dunn and daughter, Cora, spent Sunday at the home of H. C. Gray.

Newton Pickett returned last Friday from Kansas City, where he marketed a carload of fat cattle.

Mrs. Bennett, of Seiling Okla., has sold her farm at that place and shipped her cattle and household effects to Beaver county to make her future home with her sons. We are glad to welcome her here.

The Sunday School at the Hibbe school house held their ice cream social Saturday night and we are pleased to report that a most enjoyable time was had by all who were present.

SKYLARK.

Twin Mounds

(Crowded out last week.)

Oct. 23—The weather since the big rain is perfect.

A number of our farmers seeded broom corn last week. Messrs Chas. Fouth and Fred Hengler were in the neighborhood with their seeders.

Mrs. Elsie Beck and baby visited Mrs. Robinson at Belle Meade while their husbands went to Laverne the first of the week.

Mrs. May Johnson, who is teaching the Coppel school, was off duty all last week on account of a dislocated shoulder and bruises caused by an overturned buggy while on the way to school.

Chas. Howard and Mr. Morris are helping Frank Robinson stack feed.

Mr. Shiner is the new Sunday-school superintendent at the church.

Russell Martin is attending school at Sunset.

Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner were guests of Mrs. Johnson recently.

Surprise.

Oct. 29th—Beautiful autumn weather as the yellow leaves come drifting down.

Surprise school suspended the latter part of this week as the teacher was attending the Teachers' Association at Beaver.

Oscar Grosno sold his broomcorn for $50.00 per ton and is freighting it to Knowles this week.

John Loveall, Henry Gallyen, Russell Wilder and Walter Beck took wheat to Glazier Thursday, bringing back lumber for Athen Gilger's new house.

School started at Locust Grove Monday with Miss Mae Thompson as teacher.

Plenty of green tomatoes on the market at present.

A singing school is in progress at Mountain View church, conducted by Prof. Conner.

Tommy Culp is clerking for Oscar Grosno this week.

W. N. Hadden took wheat to the new railroad Thursday. Hurrah for old Beaver! She'll be our town.

W. M. Lakink passed away last Friday after a long illness. His loved ones and friends had watched his slow but sure decline and the end came about 4 p. m. Interment was made in the Mountain View cemetery. Our sincerest sympathy goes out to the wife in her hour of bereavement.

OCCASIONALLY.

Conquest

Everyone is enjoying this beautiful weather.

Miss Lulu Heffner has returned from a visit at Wilmore. Mrs. Heffner remained with her daughter, Mrs. B. O. Freeman.

Mrs. Nellie Stouder has been on the sick list, but is improving at this writing.

Elmer Brown and wife spent Sunday with Fritz Roberts, of Clear Lake.

Mrs. Herget was calling in this neighborhood recently.

Bert Blood and family spent Sunday at his father's, C. E. Blood.

Miss Lola Osteen, who is attending school at Knowles, spent the week-end with her parents.

John Sell and mother of Knowles, spent Sunday with J. A. Hester.

We are a little late in announcing the birth of a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Layton on October 19th.

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Nellie Stouder, to the number of thirty-five, went to her home on October 20th to remind her of her 29th birthday. She received a number of presents. The evening was spent in games and music, and refreshments were served. It was a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shapley were out from Spearmore to attend the party for Mrs. Stouder.

Rumor has it that there will be two new cars in the neighborhood soon.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you. You can't make a mistake in taking

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

Has Helped Thousands.
